"Mongolia Self(drive)"

The following supplements to the general terms and conditions of Steppenfuchs Reisen are agreed upon for the Mongolia self-drive tours:

1. every driver is in possession of a valid International Driving License.
2. Each driver has a driving experience of at least five years (proof by the national driving license).
3. Only authorized persons are allowed to drive the vehicle. Authorized are: the customers who have been registered by name with Steppenfuchs Reisen and to whom the vehicle has been left, the owner, employees of Steppenfuchs Reisen.
4. In case of a traffic accident, each participant accepts the peculiarities of Mongolian accident handling by the police. Mentioned in particular, for damages over 5,000 USD, the accident case is automatically forwarded to the prosecutor's office.

In the case of damages under 5,000 USD, the accident process is only terminated when all parties concerned have mutually agreed to the respective proposed solution

The processing of the accident case can take several days in Mongolia and is sometimes associated with long travel distances.

5. Additional costs incurred by Steppenfuchs Reisen due to the accident will be borne by the driver. Additional costs can be e.g.
 - Towing costs / recovery costs
 - Additional overnight stays
 - Additional catering
 - Medical transport / hospital / doctor's fees
 - Administrative fees
 - Travel expenses to the police station / place of court
 - And more
6. Steppenfuchs Reisen does not cover payments for medical treatment, fines, etc. In case of emergency Steppenfuchs Reisen will lay out the corresponding money, which will then be refunded by the driver..
7. In the event of a total loss of the vehicle or if the vehicle cannot be made ready to drive again on site, there is no entitlement to a replacement vehicle.
8. In case of culpable causing of an accident the driver takes over the costs which are not covered by the vehicle insurance. Steppenfuchs Reisen will insure the vehicles in the best possible way for Mongolian conditions, but due to the peculiarities of the Mongolian insurance system, partial amounts may not be paid by the insurance.
9. In the event of accidents or damage to the vehicle caused by the influence of alcohol, including residual alcohol in this case, the driver shall be liable for the full amount of the damage.
10. Steppenfuchs Reisen charges a cost share of 1.000 € / per driver. The cost share is to be deposited in the form of a deposit in cash at the beginning of the trip.

We explicitly point out:

That off-road driving is subject to different conditions than driving on European roads.

Russian vehicles react differently than modern Western vehicles.

Mongolian terrain has special dangers that every driver should be prepared for.

Mongolian road users usually behave differently than European road users.

We strongly recommend taking out a travel accident insurance policy with repatriation

The participant automatically agrees to the special regulations when booking a self-drive trip. Special arrangements require the written form.
